

COVID-19: Resources for Parents/Carers

In the light of school closures, we wanted to provide a range of advice and resources for parents/carers.

We are keen to signpost you to resources that start valuable conversations with your children and young people, providing tested tools to maintain wellbeing at a time of concern and anxiety for many families.

At the end of this document we have included some resources that will allow children to continue learning at home.

National Advice (Please note this advice will be continually updated as new information emerges):

Free online tours of the best art galleries in the world

Google Arts & Culture teamed up with over 500 museums and galleries around the world to bring anyone and everyone virtual tours and online exhibits of some of the most famous museums around the world.

National Trust

The National Trust are working hard to open as many spaces as they can free of charge, with no parking fees, whilst closing all cafes and gift shops, to ensure people still have access to nature in order to support wellbeing. This will vary from site to site in terms of whether they are spacious enough to allow for social distancing.

Information and guidance to support children and young people:

MindMate Website

MindMate is a Leeds website for families, professionals, children and young people around youth mental health. If you're a young person, MindMate can help you understand the way you're feeling and find the right advice and support. If you're a parent, carer or professional, MindMate can help you support a young person you know. We would recommend hovering over the young person's tab, clicking 'games' and then selecting 'stress pot', as this is a timely and helpful activity to do with your children.

Clear Fear App

Clear Fear is an app developed for teenage mental health charity stem4 by Dr Nihara Krause, Consultant Clinical Psychologist, and uses the evidence-based treatment CBT to focus on learning to reduce the physical responses to threat by learning to breathe, relax and be mindful as well as changing thoughts and behaviours and releasing emotions. You can personalise the app if you so wish and you will be able to track your progress and notice change.

Calm Harm App

Calm Harm is an award-winning app developed for teenage mental health charity stem4 by Dr Nihara Krause, Consultant Clinical Psychologist, using the basic principles of an evidence-based therapy called Dialectical Behavioural Therapy (DBT). Calm Harm provides tasks to help you resist or manage the urge to self-harm. You can make it private by setting a password, and personalise the app if you so wish. You will be able to track your progress and notice change.

Young Minds Take 20 Parent Activities

Talking to your child about how they're feeling can be hard. By taking 20 minutes with them to do an activity you'll both enjoy, you'll create a relaxed space to start that conversation. Here are some ideas of #Take20 activities that you could do in 20 minutes.

Anna Freud Self-Care Strategies

Anna Freud consulted with a wide range of young people to create a portal of self-care strategies to help young people to manage their wellbeing. Advice to give to young people: It's up to you to decide what helps. If it works, keep doing it. If it doesn't, stop and try something else. And you can help Anna Freud build an evidence-base for these activities by letting them know what works by clicking on the 'Did this activity help your mental wellbeing' button on each page. This will help them decide which ones to research further.

Helplines, Online Chats and referrals pathways:

Kooth: free online counselling platform for children & young people
